

How Do I Pray?

Do you think you do not know how to pray or are you afraid to pray?

Have you been given the impression that the only way you can communicate with God is through specially written statements?

Or if you are simply afraid to pray to God is it because you have been made to feel you are not worthy to even think you could talk to Him?

Whatever reason you may have that is preventing you from getting to know and talk to Yeshua, please put it aside. If you are wanting to know what it means to have peace of mind and experience a life full of joy and hope, you need to come to know Yeshua as He really is - a loving and compassionate Man and not some stern Master sitting on a throne in the sky somewhere not concerned about what you are facing.

How do you pray to Yeshua? How do you talk to your friends? Do you have some glorious long-winded statements you use that has about as much feeling in them as you would have sitting in front of an IRS auditor or are you relaxed and open with your feelings when you talk to your friends?

Yeshua is the best friend you could ever want in your life. Talk to Him that way. Relax and open your heart to Him. He already knows what you are going to say but He wants to hear you say it and in your own words, not some prepared speech.

Close your eyes and just talk to Him. Tell Him what is bothering you – pour your heart out to him. Tell Yeshua what you are concerned about or are afraid of and you do not know what to do. The Lord loves you just as you are despite what others may say.

Be yourself and reach out to Yeshua with love and compassion and I guarantee you He will grab your hand and never let it go. He will put His loving arms around you and listen to every word you have to say. The best thing that will happen is, unlike any friend you may have on this earth, the Lord will take care of your needs if you leave them in His hands and have faith that He will do what is best for you according to His timing and not yours.

Remember when you approach Yeshua in prayer it is not like visiting a food bar where you walk down the aisle picking up this answer and that answer then you stand in front of Him like He is a cashier who will check you out and send you on your way with your answers. It does not work that way. You may think you know the answers but only Yeshua knows what is in your future and how different responses effects your future.

Also remember that you cannot bargain with the Lord saying, “if I do this or donate that amount of money I expect you to do this Lord”.

You cannot buy His love or His answers. You come to Him in love and faith and He will do what is best for you. It cannot get any simpler than that.

Now try it right now and see what happens. Get real with Him and He will get real with you –
